

GIFT FROM THE DEAD FRIEND

Synopsis

The biggest dream of a friend group of five, comes true with the suicide of one of them. A recklessly sent email brings about the possibility of this suicide being murder. Ties of friendship slowly weakens, and best friends become fierce enemies. The struggle for life and death begins right at this point.

Don invites his close friends from college Danny-Marissa and Bob-Julia over for dinner one night. And kills himself at the end of the night. In the tape he leaves behind as a suicide note he admits that he is in love with his friend's girlfriend but doesn't say who it is. After Don's suicide, Danny receives a package from Martin, who is a movie producer. There is a script in the package as a birthday gift from Don to Danny. The script is about the night Don committed suicide and he wants his friends to make a movie of this script. When they read the script, they understand that Don acted and talked that night the same way it was written. They shoot the film Don wanted and they go to Hollywood as they had always dreamed. After the premier of the movie, Bob and the lead actor Adrian disappear upon leaving traces of a fight for life and death. Having had a short-termed fling with Adrian, Julia is almost sure that Bob, who has drinking and jealousy problems, did something to him. She hasn't gotten used to the phoniness of Hollywood anyway so, she returns to the neighborhood they spent time during college days. A surprise encounter here causes the death of a loved old friend. This enables her to figure out the mystery of the disappearance of Bob and Adrian. She returns to Hollywood to reveal the truths behind the phoniness one by one. At the cost of losing her friends and even her life.

Julia

She has a relationship with Adrian when Bob decides to take a break. When she understands she can't do it without Bob, she goes back to him. Bob's extreme jealousy and drinking problem makes her question her decision a lot. She blames herself when Bob and Adrian disappear after leaving traces of a fight for life and death. Her mind and memory plays games on her as the movie they made reminds her of the terrible things they have been through.

Bob

Julia's jealous boyfriend. There is nothing he won't do when it comes to Julia. If he gets jealous under the influence of alcohol, things can get deathly dangerous. He is the one who is the most affected by Don's suicide. He cannot stop thinking the possibility that Don was in love with Julia. He hates Adrian.

Danny

He takes his first step at becoming a director by filming the script Don left him. He always has a guilty conscious as he took his friend's suicide as an opportunity. These struggles force him to make difficult choices. He tries to silence his conscious to protect a huge secret he is keeping from his friends.

Marissa

Danny's girlfriend. She doesn't realize how serious things are getting around her as she is enjoying the luxury they achieved after Don's suicide.

Martin

The producer of Danny's movie. He doesn't care about ethics or whatsoever. People starting to die after the movie mean more audience and more money for him. He is ready to do anything for more. The advices he gives to Danny bring both of them trouble.
